O R D E R

The prosecutor submits that the petitioner is required, as part of the investigation, regarding the transaction of counterfeit currency notes, by one Kunjumon, who came before this Court for an order under Section 438 Cr.P.C. It is also submitted that this Court has directed the Investigating Officer, to issue notice to the said Kunjumon, so that he will be available for interrogation, as he is not a named accused in Crime No.176/2006 of Punnapra Police Station. The prosecutor further submits that the petitioner herein is connected with him and she is now absconding along with the said Kunjumon, to whom, notice, as directed, could not be served, so far.

2. In the above fact situation, I find no orders need be passed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. It is for the Investigating Officer, to get the petitioner and interrogate her, as per the law.

The application is accordingly, closed.
